THE TEXT: WHAT DOES IT MEAN FOR ME?

ASK THIS:

- Lois Lane in DC Comic's 2017 Justice League stated, "Darkness. The truest darkness is not the absence of light. It is the conviction that the light will never return." How closely does this quote resonate with you? Why that much?
- As you think through some of the events of Samson's life, what similarities do you see in your own life? (disobedience, getting involved with the wrong crowd, anger issues, lapses in judgement with massive consequences, loneliness)
- God has a plan for your life that far outweighs anything you could dream on your own. Do you truly believe this statement? If so, in what ways does it motivate you? If not, what causes you to not believe?
- Like Samson, God can redeem and restore your story. How could a person who is in the pit of failure be encouraged by this statement?
- What do you learn from seeing the obstacles Samson faced and how he eventually displayed the power and protection of God? How can Samson's life impact yours?

As you discuss the next two questions please consider sharing your story with others by visiting <http://rcunleashed.org/your-story/> You never know how God will use your story to encourage others and motivate those still considering whether or not to participate in Unleashed.

- How has your relationship with God been impacted as you have participated in Unleashed?

- Share an experience when you have seen God provide for you and encourage you to live out your Unleashed commitment.
